

Week 5 – Share Together

Text: Matthew 28:18-20, 9:9-13

Topics: Sharing, Evangelism, Great Commission

Big Idea of the Message: The message of Jesus is too powerful and too full of hope to keep to ourselves. When you share the Gospel, it brings personal joy, community joy, and heavenly joy. If you have been transformed by the good news of His grace, you have a story to share with the world!

Application Point: Together, we can give the greatest act of love toward others by sharing the good news of Jesus.

Discussion Questions:

1. What is one thing that stood out to you from this week's message?
2. Jesus began his public ministry by proclaiming, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." (Matthew 4:17). What does that mean and why is it still significant for us today?
3. Read Matthew 28:18-20. What resonates with you most from these words from Jesus? Why?
4. Tell us a time you've seen sharing the Gospel work.
5. How does sharing together change the dynamic?
6. How can we keep each other accountable in this area?
7. How can we pray for you?
